Financial Generosity

“Each of you must bring a gift in proportion to the way the LORD your God has blessed you.” ~Deuteronomy 16:17

“See what great love the Father has lavished on us, that we should be called children of God!” ~1 John 3:1

A key tenant to Christian discipleship, as well as one of the core values at First Pres, is Relentless Generosity. By this we mean:

We give extravagantly, beyond what is expected. We give because God was generous to us first. We give responsibly, cheerfully, and without guilt, championing the future forward.

We are called to participate in God’s mission of redemption and restoration both individually and corporately as a Church Family. When it comes to giving of oneself financially, here are various ways to do just that.

Automatic Deduction (ACH)

By far the easiest and most consistent way to manage your giving, you can set up an electronic withdrawal directly from your financial institution to the church on a recurring basis. As you can imagine, this is our preferred method for you to use.

- It’s simple. Set it up once, and you’re done.
- It saves the church money. Not only is it paperless, it doesn’t cost us credit card fees or staff time for processing.
- Many people find this method helpful for their own budgeting and tithing purposes, and it helps make giving a priority.
- Predictable giving helps church leaders plan and prepare for ministry.

Text

You can make either a one-time or recurring gift by text.

Text “GIVE” 407-641-3872 and follow the prompts... or scan the QR here ⇒

Online

Giving through our website at fpco.org/give is one of the fastest ways to contribute and is available 24/7 on any device. Simply fill out the online form and you can schedule single or recurring gifts to the church through a debit or credit card. This method of giving only takes a few moments and allows you to give as either a guest or create an account. You can also elect to cover the processing fees to help cover that expense.

Giving in Worship:

Checks/Cash

Virtually/Physically

Intentionally offering ourselves to the Lord's missional work on a weekly basis, and in this instance financially, holds a central place in the Sunday worship liturgy. So, how?

- Physical giving: Offering Boxes in the Narthex; Slot to a safe to the right of the EMC Lobby Desk
- Virtual giving: Via QR Codes on the Sanctuary screens or in the weekly Worship Guide

Our Finance Department is not able to note cash gifts on your year-end statement without an indication of who the cash gift is from. If you would like to use personalized giving-envelopes to bring to worship, send an email to finance@fpco.org and we will send you a set every two months. We find parents of young children like the tangible way to form generous hearts.

Mail

You can always write a check and mail it directly to the church. You can mail gifts to:
First Presbyterian Church of Orlando, Attn: Finance Office, 106 E Church Street, Orlando, FL 32801

Long Term Giving / Estate Planning

Many Christ-followers want to share the faith, hope, and love of Jesus Christ by doing something strategic and sustainable with their lives and resources, but they may not know what or how. At the Heart of the City Foundation, we help you easily invest in the Kingdom through planned giving, so you can make a meaningful, long-lasting impact on your church, city, and world.

Giving through the Heart of the City Foundation is a wonderful way to make a gift that literally keeps on giving for the years to come.

You can go to heartofthecityfoundation.org to learn more or reach out to Foundation Director Dennis Brockman at dbrockman@fpco.org / (407) 409-2481. You can also give right now securely online, click here.

First Presbyterian Church of Orlando's Session takes seriously its commitment to the highest of standards for financial accountability, transparency, and management. To this end we have an annual audit by an outside firm, extensive internal controls, clear, consistent, and enforced policies for financial management. Additionally, we meet the standards of the Evangelical Council for Financial Accountability, known as the "Good Housekeeping Seal of Approval" for nonprofits and churches that seek to reach the highest of ethical financial practices.
